Ms. Wolf,

I regret the delay in responding to your last communication. Jerry Waggoner has been contacting Circor's suppliers in other countries, the identity of which he would not be aware of absent his access to Circor's confidential information. This in addition to his contacting of Circor's employees as discussed previously has made this a difficult situation. My client will be reworking agreement terms to prevent further damage. These must include no contact by Mr. Waggoner of any customers, suppliers, process licensors or EPCs in the FCC and Delayed Coking Industries anywhere in the world. I will send a revised agreement next week for your review.
